Public Forum Set in Chattanooga: Small Business Owners to Comment on Federal Regulatory Enforcement

Chattanooga, TN -- Small business owners, community leaders and representatives of trade associations in the southeastern region who are concerned about excessive enforcement of federal rules can voice their complaints at a U.S. Small Business Administration Regulatory Fairness Board Forum in Chattanooga, Tennessee on Wednesday, February 20, 2008, from 9:30AM to 11:00AM.

The forum will be held in the Chattanooga Convention Center, 1150 Carter Street, Room 20, Chattanooga, TN 37401.

SBA National Ombudsman Nicholas Owens, members of the SBA's Region IV Regulatory Fairness Board, and representatives of federal regulatory agencies will hear comments and complaints about regulatory enforcement and compliance and will discuss the impact of federal regulations on small business.

"One of the leading concerns small business owners face is unfair enforcement of federal regulations. They also worry about telling their stories because they fear retaliation by federal agencies," Owens said. "Small business owners want to play by the rules and comply with federal regulations. We want to encourage Federal regulators to provide effective compliance assistance, rather than go straight to the penalty stage. Regulatory enforcement should be effective, not excessive."

This forum offers small business owners a chance to express their concerns about federal compliance practices and to learn how to more effectively deal with federal regulatory requirements.

Comments and complaints presented during this forum will be directed to the appropriate federal regulatory agency. This information will also be shared with federal officials in the National Ombudsman's Annual Report to Congress, and with leadership of federal regulatory agencies to assist them with their enforcement actions.

The forum is open to the public. Those wishing to testify should contact David Tiller, Public Information Officer of the SBA's Tennessee District Office at 615-736-7176 or by email at david.tiller@sba.gov before the forum. Should small business owners or representatives be unable to attend, written testimony may be sent in advance of the forum to be included in the public record.

Comments and concerns about federal enforcement actions can be addressed directly to SBA's Office of the National Ombudsman at 1-888-734-3247 (REGFAIR).
